ODDS AND ENDS.

The father of James Mill was a cobbler.

A good play should interest both the blind and the deaf.

There are thirteen miles of bookshelves in the British museum.

Tannin mixed with mutton tallow is good for chapped hands.

Light haired people, as a rule, live longer than dark haired.

Wooden pavements were the invention of Nicholson in 1854.

Among 300,000,000 of the world's population slavery still exists.

New York is reported to eat 60,000 bushels of huckleberries every season.

Some watches now made are guaranteed to keep time to within ten seconds a month.

A Newark gentleman advertises for a wife "who is pretty, but entirely ignorant of the fact."

Georgia has a mocking bird which can not only talk, but whistle almost any tune it hears.

An English paper asserts that 1,000,000 bonnets were sold in London during one week recently.

Marshal Augereau was the son of a grocer, and left that business to enlist as a private soldier.

An electric circle, which was guaranteed to run twenty-eight miles without recharging, cost $500.

Tireless industry, so cultivated as to become a sustained habit of life, is an evidence of character.

If the garden spiders break and destroy their webs and creep away expect rain or showery weather.

The tallest man living today is said to be Chang Tu Ling, the Chinese giant. His height is 7 feet 3 inches.

During a lifetime of observation one sees many changes in the customs and sentiments of people and nations.

A few drops of sweet oil will greatly help the running of the carpet sweeper, sewing machine and clothes wringer.

A Geneva watchmaker has invented a talking clock that can be so adjusted that it will invite the courting young man to stay to breakfast.

John N. Hutchinson, of Richmond, Ind., has met with twenty-five accidents in the last ten years. Both of his arms have been broken, several ribs fractured, his head crushed and one of his legs broken.

Cared for by a Former Slave.

Robert Chison, aged eighty-five, once a slave on a Louisiana plantation and since the war a resident of Indianapolis, is now caring for the daughter of his old master at his home here.

She is an invalid and in poverty. Although Chison has served a term in the penitentiary, and for years has been almost under constant watchfulness of the police, he is seemingly atoning for all his sins by this act of charity.

The woman he is caring for is Mrs. Sarah J. Clark, whose father before the war was a planter in East Feliciana parish.

While she was very young Mrs. Clark's parents died and she became the ward of Squire Boyd, of Lancaster, O. Then she married Milton L. Clark, a captain in the Union army, who squandered her fortune and then died of wounds received in battle.

Since then Mrs. Clark has led a wandering life, and finally reached Indianapolis, when the old slave Chison took her in charge after he learned she was an inmate of the county asylum.

Mrs. Clark has been faithful to her religion, and it was unavoidable misfortune that caused her poverty and homelessness.

She is an applicant for a pension and has been for years, but for some cause the claim has not been allowed.—Indianapolis Letter.

Shelley's Widow.

Lady Jane Shelley, the widow of Sir Percy, is an invalid and lives in the strictest seclusion at Boscombe. She has a passion for birds, and many of those in the surrounding woods are wonderfully tame in her presence. At Boscombe manor there is a little theater. It will be remembered that Sir Percy also had a theater in Chelsea, which the neighbors, as a wit said, wished to turn into a "little bethel." There is also a fine summer house at Boscombe on the cliffs overlooking one of the chimes for which the locality is famous.—Exchange.

Needed Rest.

"Ah, Duellist, old boy, where are you going to spend the summer?"

"I can make no definite arrangements until I know where my tailor and other creditors are going to spend theirs. One goes to the seaside for rest, you know."—Exchange.

Fashionable Fall Colors.

Thousands of dollars will be saved by using diamond dyes. The following list of colors is especially popular this fall:

Fast black, silk, wool or cotton.

Fast brown, dark, seal, gold.

Fast blue, navy, indigo, dark.

Fast green, light, dark, bottle.

These twelve dyes, as well as the thirty others, are so simple and easy to use that there is no excuse for any woman to wear a faded or shabby gown.

A little boy of Mrs. McDonald's, living near here, fell against a red hot stove and was fearfully burned. The pain was terrible, and it was thought the burn was so severe as to scar the child for life. I sold the lady a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which, after greasing the sore, she applied. It soon removed all the fire and eased the pain, and in ten days the boy was well, no trace of the scar remaining.—J. D. McLean, Keyport, Clinton county, Ill.

A Good Thing to Keep at Hand.

From the Troy (Kansas) Chief.

Some years ago we were very much subject to severe spells of cholera morbus; and now when we feel any of the symptoms that usually precede that ailment, such as sickness of the stomach, diarrhea, etc., we become scared. We have found Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy the very thing to straighten one out in such cases, and always keep it about. We are not writing this for a pay testimonial, but to let our readers know what is a good thing to keep handy in the house. For sale by F. J. Wurzburg, druggist, 58 Monroe street.

Oh My Poor Feet!

I remove corns, bunions, ingrowing toe nails and warts for men, women and children, at the Turkish bath house, corner Monroe and Ionia streets. M. S. LA BOUTILLIER.

Among the incidents of childhood that stand out in bold relief, as our memory reverts to the days when we were young, none are more prominent than severe sickness. The young mother vividly remembers that it was Chamberlain's Cough Remedy that cured her of croup, and in turn administered it to her own offspring and always with the best results. For sale by F. J. Wurzburg, druggist, No. 58 Monroe street.

Thursday and Friday, September 29 and 30, are the dates for Corl, Knott & Co.'s grand millinery opening.
